PROPOSED
CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS TO BE VOTED ON AT CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION TO BE HELD
NOVEMBER 3rd, 1936
Without reference to any other provision of this Constitution, or of any laws enacted thereunder, and without an election having theretofore been held, the municipal authorities of any municipality in this State having a population of 75,000 or over, are hereby authorized to levy a special tax, not exceeding one mill on the dollar of assessed valuation in any one year, for the purpose of providing revenue sufficient to enable such municipalities to provide a three-platoon system in the paid police department of such municipalities, the avails of which tax shall be used exclusively for such purpose.

Section 2. That said proposed amendment be submitted to said electors at the next election for Representatives in Congress, to be held in Louisiana on the first Tuesday next following the first Monday of November, 1936.

Section 3. That on the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed amendment to Section 12 of Article XIV of the Constitution of Louisiana, relative to the levying of taxes by municipalities.

and also:

AGAINST the proposed amendment to Section 12 of Article XIV of the Constitution of Louisiana, relative to the levying of taxes by municipalities.

and each elector voting on said proposition for so amending said Constitution, shall indicate his vote relative thereto, as provided by the general election laws of the State of Louisiana.

Adopted at the Regular Session of the Legislature of Louisiana for the year 1936.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to Section 52 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to Juvenile Courts.
Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of all the members elected to each House concurring, That there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Louisiana, for their approval or rejection, in the manner provided for by law, a proposition to amend the present Section 52 of Article VII of the Constitution of Louisiana so that said section may be made to read as follows; to wit:

Section 52. There shall be a Juvenile Court in every parish of the State. In the parishes, other than Orleans, the judge of the District Court shall be ex-officio judge of the Juvenile Court in the parish or parishes located within his district, and in those districts in which there may be more than one judge, each judge shall have full jurisdiction.

The sessions of said court shall be held apart from all sessions of the District Court, and its records shall be kept separately. The court may sit in chambers, and may hold its sessions irrespective of terms of court.

The Legislature may create the office of judge of the Juvenile Court for parishes containing municipalities having twenty-five thousand or more inhabitants who shall have all the powers now conferred on judges of the district courts as judges of the juvenile courts; and shall fix his qualifications, salary and tenure of office.

The said courts shall have jurisdiction, except for capital crime and assault with intent to commit rape, of the trial of all children under seventeen years of age who may be charged in said courts as neglected or delinquent children, and of all persons charged with contributing to such neglect or delinquency, or with a violation of any law now in existence or hereafter enacted for the protection of the physical, moral or mental well-being of children, not punishable by death, or hard labor, and also in all cases of desertion or non-support of children by either parent; and also in all adoption proceedings of children under seventeen years of age.

Section 2. That said proposed amendment to be so submitted to said electors at the next election for Representatives in Congress, to be held in Louisiana on the first Tuesday next following the first Monday of November, 1936.

Section 3. That on the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed amendment to Section 52 of Article VII of the Constitution of Louisiana, relative to Juvenile Courts.
and also:

AGAINST the proposed amendment to Section 52
of Article VII of the Constitution of Louisiana, relative to Juvenile Courts.

and each elector voting on said proposition for so amending said Constitution, shall indicate his vote relative thereto as provided by the general election laws of the State of Louisiana.
