ACT No. 400

AN ACT

Providing for the creation and election of an additional judge of the Juvenile Court for the Parish of Orleans to be known as the judge of Section "C" thereof; providing for the duties, powers, jurisdiction, qualifications, term of office and salary of such additional judge; providing for the appointment of such additional Judge by the Governor to serve through December 31, 1960* or until his successor is elected and qualified; providing for the appointment of a crier and stenographer by such judge and prescribing their duties and compensation; providing a saving clause and repealing all laws or parts of laws in conflict with or inconsistent herewith.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. That in addition to the number of judges now provided for by Article VII, Section 96 of the Constitution of Louisiana of 1921, as augmented by provisions of R.S. 13:1741, Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, there is hereby created and shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Parish of Orleans, an additional judge of the Juvenile Court for the Parish of Orleans, who shall receive the same salary, payable from the same sources and in the same manner as is paid to the judges now serving in the Juvenile Court for the Parish of Orleans, and who shall possess all of the powers, duties, jurisdiction and qualifications as are prescribed by the Constitution and laws of this State relative to judges of the Juvenile Court for the Parish of Orleans.

Section 2. The first judge for said additional judgeship of the Juvenile Court for the Parish of Orleans, who shall preside over the additional section of said Court, as provided herein, shall be elected in a manner hereinafter set forth provided that the Governor shall make an interim appointment to that office to serve through December 31, 1960* and his successor shall be elected for a term of eight years commencing on January 1, 1961, at the Congressional election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November* 1960* and his successor every eight years thereafter, each serving until his successor is elected and qualified.

Section 3. The senior judge of the Juvenile Court for the Parish of Orleans shall preside in section "A". The section of the Court now presided over by the associate judge shall be designated as section “B”. The additional judge herein created shall be known as the judge of section “C” of the Juvenile Court for the Parish of Orleans and he shall have the right to appoint a crier and stenographer for said section of said Court, who shall perform the same duties and receive the same compensation, payable in the same manner and from the same sources as similar officials in other sections of the said Court.

Severability clause. Section 4. If any clause, sentence, paragraph or part of this Act be declared unconstitutional, invalid, or inoperative by any court of competent jurisdiction, such judgment shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph or part directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment is rendered, and the remaining provisions of this Act shall remain in full force and effect as completely as if the part held unconstitutional, invalid or inoperative had been deleted herefrom.

Repealing clause. Section 5. That all laws or parts of laws in conflict or inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Emergency legislation. Section 6. That the Governor having certified to the Legislature during the session of the Legislature, the necessity for the immediate passage of this Act, this Act shall become effective immediately upon the approval by the Governor.

Approved by the Governor: July 9, 1958.
