AN ACT

To amend and re-enact Subsection A of Section 691 of Title 13 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, relative to the salaries of certain judges, to provide that the total annual salary, from all sources, of district judges, judges of the civil and criminal district court of the parish of Orleans, judges of the juvenile courts of Caddo and Orleans parishes and the judge of the Family Court of East Baton Rouge Parish shall not be less than fifteen thousand dollars per annum nor shall such total salary exceed that fixed by law for the judges of the Courts of Appeal.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. Subsection A of Section 691 of Title 13 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 is hereby amended and re-enacted to read as follows:

§ 691. Annual salaries of district judges, certain civil district judges, certain criminal district court judges and certain juvenile judges and family court judges payable by state; minimum and maximum salary; salary payable by parishes and districts composed of three parishes

A. The annual salary of each of the several district judges, including the civil district court judges and the criminal district court judges of the parish of Orleans, the judges of the juvenile court of the parish of Orleans, the parish of Caddo, and the judge of the Family Court of East Baton Rouge Parish, shall be thirteen thousand two hundred ($13,200.00) dollars, payable monthly by the state treasurer upon the warrant of the judge; provided, that in no case shall the total salary from all sources of any judge covered by the provisions of this Section be less than fifteen thousand dollars per annum nor shall such total salary from all sources exceed the annual salary fixed by law for judges of the courts of appeal.
The additional salaries of the several judges presently being paid by political subdivisions or administrative bodies shall be continued in full force and effect, and nothing contained herein shall be construed as repealing said present supplemental payments. In any case where the total annual salary from all sources of any of the aforesaid judges shall be less than fifteen thousand dollars per annum, upon or after the effective date of this Subsection, an additional salary shall be payable monthly by the state treasurer upon the warrant of the judge in an amount sufficient to provide the judge with a total annual salary from all sources of fifteen thousand dollars. Upon and after the effective date of this Subsection if any political subdivision or administrative body of the state which is paying an additional salary to any of said judges upon the effective date of this Subsection should discontinue or reduce the additional salary below that being so paid to any of said judges upon the effective date of this Subsection, there shall be no additional salary paid by the state to recompense any such judge for the loss of salary resulting from such discontinuance or reduction even though such discontinuance or reduction would result in said judge receiving less than fifteen thousand dollars per annum.

Section 2. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.
