ACTS OF THE LEGISLATURE

VOLUME II

REGULAR SESSION 1976
EXTRAORDINARY SESSION 1976

Published by Authority of the State of Louisiana

PAUL J. HARDY
Secretary of State

Baton Rouge, Louisiana
1976
Act 683

Revised Statutes of 1950 by designation as R.S. 42:700, to amend Title 13:1595, to provide for the receipt of the governing boards of the Employees' Retirement System, designated as Section “E” and Section “F”; to create two additional judgeships of the court, to provide for the election and terms of office of the new judges; to provide for the personnel for the proper operation of said sections; to provide for the effectiveness of the Act; and to provide for related matters.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. Section 1595,2 of Title 13 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

1745
$1595.2. Additional judges for the Orleans Parish Juvenile Court; creation; election and terms; personnel

In addition to the presently existing Sections "A", "B", "C" and "D" the present Orleans Parish Juvenile Court, whether designated by such name or whether redesignated by another name, there is hereby created two new sections of said court for purposes of nomination and election only, to be designated as Section "E" and Section "F". There are hereby established two additional judgeships, the judges of which shall preside over Section "E" and Section "F", respectively. Each judge shall have the right to appoint a crier, stenographer and minute clerk for his own section of said court, who shall perform the same duties and receive the same compensation, payable in the same manner, and from the same sources as similar officials in other sections of said court. The first judges elected to each such new section of the court shall be elected by the voters of Orleans Parish as provided by Article V, Section 22 of the constitution at a special election to be called by the governor to coincide with the regular elections for congressmen to be held in 1978. Each of the first judges elected to each of said judgeships shall take office on January 1, 1979 and shall each serve for a term of the same number of years as is provided by law for the other judges of the court. Thereafter, the successors to the additional judgeships provided for by this Act shall be elected at the congressional election held in the last year of their terms in the same manner, and shall serve terms for the same number of years as is now or may be hereafter provided for other judges of the court.

Section 2. If any provision or item of this Act or the application thereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions, items or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions, items or applications, and to this end the provisions of this Act are hereby declared severable.

Section 3. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 4. This Act shall take effect and become operative, and the judgeships created herein shall be established, on July 1, 1978.

Approved by the Governor: August 5, 1976.
