House Bill No. 451.

To amend and reenact R.S. 13:2493 in order to amend and as amended to incorporate therein the provisions of Article VII, Section 94 I of the Louisiana Constitution of 1921, which Article XIV, Section 16 of the Louisiana Constitution of 1974 continues as a statute, to provide with respect to the jurisdiction of the municipal court of New Orleans.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:
Section 1. Article VII, Section 94 I of the Louisiana Constitution of 1921 is hereby amended and reenacted and as amended and reenacted is hereby incorporated into Section 2493 of Title 13 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, which Section, for the purpose, is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§2493. Jurisdiction

A. The jurisdiction of the court shall extend to the trial of violations of the ordinances of the city of New Orleans, except traffic violations.

B. The jurisdiction of the courts shall further extend to the trial of violations of state statutes which are not triable by a jury; which jurisdiction shall be concurrent with that of the Criminal District Court for the Parish of Orleans. This jurisdiction shall not extend to traffic violations.

C. When exercising said concurrent jurisdiction, all procedure shall comply with those parts of the Louisiana Constitution of 1974, the Louisiana Revised Statutes, and the Code of Criminal Procedure pertaining to the prosecution of criminal cases not requiring trial by jury.

D. The Court shall have no other jurisdiction.

Section 2. If any provision or item of this Act or the application thereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions, items or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions, items or applications, and to this end the provisions of this Act are hereby declared severable.

Section 3. All laws or parts of laws in conflict are hereby repealed.

Approved by the Governor: July 17, 1975.
