Act 717

garding the nature, terms, and amounts of the loans upon which the linked deposits were based and the agricultural products processing businesses to whom the loans were made. The report shall not include the assets, liabilities, or percent equity of any recipient agricultural products processing business, but shall include a statement by the treasurer that the lending institutions have certified that all recipient agricultural products processing businesses meet the requirements of this Section.

Q. Neither the state, the commissioner, nor the treasurer shall be liable to any lending institution in any manner for payment of the principal or interest on any loan to an eligible agricultural products processing business under this Section. Any delay in payments or default on the part of an agricultural products processing business shall not in any manner affect the deposit agreement between the eligible lending institution and the treasurer. The deposits made by the treasurer under this program shall not be considered pledged in any way to the eligible lending institution in the event of a loan default.

R. The treasurer and commissioner shall adopt rules and regulations in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act as may be necessary to implement and enforce the provisions of this Section.

S. Whoever intentionally violates any provision of this Section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned no more than six months, or both, for each violation.

Approved by the Governor, July 8, 1989.
