No. 45.] AN ACT

To organize the city courts in the city of New Orleans; to regulate the territorial jurisdiction thereof and proceedings therein, and to fix the salaries of the judges.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, That there shall be three city courts in the city of New Orleans, which shall be designated and known as the "First City Court of New Orleans," the "Second City Court of New Orleans," and the "Third City Court of New Orleans."

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, etc., That the jurisdiction of the First City Court of New Orleans and the Second City Court of New Orleans shall be concurrent and shall extend over the entire parish of Orleans, with the exception of that portion which lies on the right bank of the river Mississippi. The First City Court shall be located above Canal street, and the Second City Court shall be located below Canal street, in buildings to be provided by the city of New Orleans. That the jurisdiction of the Third City Court of New Orleans shall extend over that portion of the parish of Orleans which lies on the right bank of the river Mississippi.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, etc., That no person shall be sued before any city court other than the one having jurisdiction over the place of his residence, but all the constables of said city courts shall have authority to execute process throughout the entire parish of Orleans.

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, etc., That by virtue of the first election held under the existing Constitution of the State, the said city courts shall be presided over by the following judges elected, viz: The First City Court of New Orleans by the Hon. E. K. Skinner, the Second City Court of New Orleans by the Hon. William Voorhies, and the Third City Court of New Orleans by the Hon. William H. Holmes; and their successors in office shall be elected and shall qualify in the numerical order designated in this section.

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, etc., That the said city courts shall hold their sessions within the limits of their respective jurisdictions every day in the year, legal holidays only excepted, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., in suitable rooms to be provided by the city of New Orleans.

Sec. 6. Be it further enacted, etc., That the judges of the city courts of New Orleans shall each receive a salary of two thousand four hundred dollars, payable monthly, on their own warrants on the Auditor of Public Accounts, who shall warrant on the State Treasurer, out of any funds in the State treasury to the credit of the judicial expense fund of the city of New Orleans, and that the fees allowed them shall be paid into the judicial expense fund of the city of New Orleans.

Sec. 7. Be it further enacted, etc., That the manner and form of proceedings before the city courts of New Orleans shall be governed by the general laws now in force regulating proceedings before justices of the peace.

Sec. 8. Be it further enacted, etc., That the judges of the city courts of New Orleans shall meet in court at least once a year and enact uniform rules for their several courts.

Sec. 9. Be it further enacted, etc., That in the event of the recusation of a judge of one of the city courts of New Orleans, the judge shall call in one of the other judges of the city courts to proceed with the case.

Sec. 10. Be it further enacted, etc., That all the archives, books and papers of the first justice of the peace, second justice of the peace, sixth justice of the peace, seventh justice of the peace, and eighth justice of the peace for the parish of Orleans shall be transferred to the First City Court of the city of New Orleans; that all the archives, books and papers of the third justice of the peace and the fourth justice of the peace for the parish of Orleans shall be transferred to the Second City Court of New Orleans; and all the archives, books and papers of the fifth justice of the peace shall be transferred to the Third City Court of New Orleans.

Sec. 11. Be it further enacted, etc., That this act shall take effect from and after the first Monday of August, 1880.
