No. 67.] AN ACT

To create the Fourth City Court of New Orleans and defining its jurisdiction; fixing and providing for its location and the salaries of its officers and manner of their payment; providing for the appointment of the judge, clerk and constable of said court and for the election of their successors.

Whereas, due notice of the intention to apply for the passage of this law has been given, by publication, for at least thirty days prior to its introduction into the General Assembly, in the manner prescribed by and according to article 48 of the Constitution of 1879; therefore—

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, That there shall be and is hereby created an additional city court for the parish of Orleans, which shall be known as the Fourth City Court of New Orleans.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, etc., That the jurisdiction of said Fourth City Court shall be the same and concurrent with that of the First and Second City Courts of New Orleans.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, etc., That the said Fourth City Court shall be located in the Sixth Municipal District of New Orleans, and the city government of New Orleans shall provide and furnish suitable rooms and the necessary stationery, fuel, etc., for the use of said court.

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, etc., The officers of said court shall be the same as those of the other city courts and shall receive the same salaries, payable in the same manner, that such officers shall receive.

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, etc., That the judge, clerk and constable of said court shall be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall enter upon the discharge of their duties on the first Monday of August, 1880, and continue to hold office until their successors are elected by the qualified voters of New Orleans, at the next general election at which officers of the other city courts are elected and shall have duly qualified.
