ACT No. 167.

House Bill No. 635. · By Messrs. Blasi, Simoneaux and Gonzales.

AN ACT

To carry into effect Section 91 and 92 of Article 7 of the Constitution of the State of Louisiana relative to the compensation paid to Judges of the First and Second City Courts of New Orleans, for performing marriages and issuing marriage licenses.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Louisiana, That for every marriage performed by any of the Judges of the First and Second City Courts of New Orleans, in the Courthouse during office hours, that is from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M., and on Saturday from 9 A. M. to 12 noon, there shall be a charge of $5.00.

Section 2. Be it further enacted, etc., That in all cases where the Judge issues the marriage license, there shall be an additional charge of $2.00 for the license and $1.00 to record same at the New Orleans City Board of Health.

Section 3. Be it further enacted, etc., That in all cases where the marriage is to be performed other than as specified in Section 1 and 2 of this Act, the compensation to be paid shall be fixed by agreement between the Judge and the contracting parties.

Section 4. Be it further enacted, etc., That all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are repealed.

Approved by the Governor: July 10, 1944.
