Section 1266.

Should a member cease to be an employee except by death or retirement under the provisions of this Part, he shall be paid such part of the amount of the accumulated contributions standing to the credit of his individual account in the annuity savings fund as he shall demand, and upon receiving such refund shall forfeit all right or claim to any creditable service in this Retirement Plan. In the event the employee who withdrew his contributions is again employed in service covered by the School Lunch Employees’ Retirement Plan and becomes a member of this Plan and remains a contributing member for at least five years he may then repay the amount previously withdrawn and again receive credit for the service forfeited at the time he withdrew. Should a member die before retirement the amount of his accumulated contributions standing to the credit of his individual account shall be paid to his estate or to such person as he shall have nominated by written designation, duly executed and filed with the board of trustees.
