ACTS OF THE LEGISLATURE

VOLUME I

REGULAR SESSION 1972

Published by Authority of the State of Louisiana

M. O. Martin, Jr.

Secretary of State

Baton Rouge, Louisiana

1972
AN ACT

To amend and reenact Article 37 of the Louisiana Civil Code, relative to the age of majority, to fully emancipate persons at the age of eighteen years.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. Article 37 of the Louisiana Civil Code is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Art. 37. Age of majority

Art. 37. Persons of the age of eighteen years shall be considered of full age and until they attain that age, shall be minors. A person who is eighteen years of age or older shall be regarded as being fully emancipated, shall be considered adults and shall have the same rights, duties, responsibilities and capacities as persons who are twenty-one years of age or older.

Section 2. If any provision or item of this Act or the application thereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions, items or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions, items or applications, and to this end the provisions of this Act are hereby declared severable.

Section 3. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved by the Governor: June 25, 1972.

ACT No. 100

Senate Bill No. 126. By: Mr. Duval.

AN ACT

To amend and reenact Section 1324 of Title 33 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, to authorize parishes, municipalities and other political subdivisions of the state to engage in joint participation in certain projects and services for the public welfare, including the joint use of funds, facilities, personnel and property, or any combination thereof, in order to accomplish said objectives.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. Section 1324 of Title 33 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§1324. Grant of authority to parishes, municipalities and political subdivisions

Any parish, municipality or political subdivision of the state, or any combination thereof, may make agreements between or among themselves to engage jointly in the construction, acquisition or improvement of any public project or improvement, the promotion and maintenance of any undertaking or the exercise of any power, provided that at least one of the participants to the agreement is authorized under a provision of general or special law to perform such activity or exercise such power as may be necessary for completion of the undertaking. Such arrangements may provide for the joint use of funds, facilities, personnel or property or any combination thereof necessary to accomplish the purposes of the agreement, and such agreements may include but are not limited to activities concerning:

(1) Police, fire and health protection.

(2) Public utility services, such as water, electricity, gas,
