Section 2. Section 30.1 of Title 14 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§30.1 Second degree murder

Second degree murder is the killing of a human being when the offender is engaged in the perpetration or attempted perpetration of aggravated rape, aggravated arson, aggravated burglary, aggravated kidnapping, aggravated escape, armed robbery, or simple robbery, even though he has no intent to kill.

Whoever commits the crime of second degree murder shall be imprisoned at hard labor for life and shall not be eligible for parole, probation, or suspension of sentence for a period of forty years.

Section 3. If any provision or item of this Act or the application thereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions, items or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions, items or applications, and to this end the provisions of this Act are hereby declared severable.

Section 4. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

AN ACT

To amend and reenact Subsection C of Section 2152 of Title 13 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, to provide that the judges of the First and Second City Courts of the city of New Orleans be permitted to devote time to another profession or occupation, other than the practice of law.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. Subsection C of Section 2152 of Title 13 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 is hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

§2152. Salary of judges; payment; prohibition against judges practicing law

* * *
C. The judges of the First and Second City Courts of the city of New Orleans shall not engage in the practice of law. However, said judges shall be permitted to devote time to another profession or occupation. Provided, however, that effective December 31, 1980, the judges of the First and Second City Courts of New Orleans shall not exercise the duties of Notary Public or share in the profits, directly or indirectly, of any law firm or legal corporation.

Section 2. If any provision or item of this Act or the application thereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions, items or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions, items or applications, and to this end the provisions of this Act are hereby declared severable.

Section 3. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.
