§1499. Negotiation
The head of the using agency or the agency procurement officer shall negotiate with the highest qualified persons for all contracts for professional, personal, or those consulting services for less than fifty thousand dollars, or those social services qualifying under R.S. 39:1494.1(A) at compensation which the head of the using agency determines in writing to be fair and reasonable to the state. In making this determination, the head of the using agency shall take into account, in the following order of importance, the professional or technical competence of offerers, the technical merits of offers, and the compensation for which the services are to be rendered, including fee. Negotiation of consulting services for fifty thousand dollars or more or social services not qualifying under R.S. 39:1494.1(A) shall be conducted in accordance with Part II, Subpart B hereof.

Approved by the Governor, July 4, 1990.

A.

(2) Each commissioner shall receive an annual salary of forty-one thousand four hundred forty-eight dollars payable by the state on his own warrant. The judges of the criminal district court sitting en banc and the city of New Orleans shall agree upon such support services and personnel including minute clerks and stenographers, as shall be necessary for the offices of commissioner, and such supporting services and personnel shall be paid in the same amount and from the same source as the same positions in the criminal district court are paid.

* * *

§1874. Compensation of judges in general

* * *

E. In addition to the compensation and fees payable to the city court judges in this state under the provisions of this Section and R.S. 13:1875, each city court judge shall receive an annual salary of twenty-three thousand seven hundred sixty dollars, payable by the state and payable monthly on his own warrant. Judges of the Traffic Court of New Orleans shall receive an annual salary of twenty-three thousand seven hundred sixty dollars payable by the state and payable monthly on the warrant of each. Judges of the Municipal Court of New Orleans shall receive an annual salary of twenty-three thousand seven hundred sixty dollars payable by the state and payable monthly on the warrant of each. The salaries paid to city court judges by the governing authorities of the several parishes and municipalities as of April 21, 1975, pursuant to R.S. 13:1875 or any other law authorizing the payment of salaries to city court judges by parishes or municipalities, or both, or any motion, ordinance, or resolution enacted or adopted pursuant thereto, shall be construed as the minimum salaries payable by such parishes and municipalities to the respective city court judges.

* * *

§1875. Compensation of city judges; particular courts

The judges of the following city courts shall receive the salaries herein provided:

* * *

(7) In addition to the salary specified by R.S. 13:1874(E) to be paid by the state of Louisiana to the judges of the City Court of Shreveport, the state shall pay to such judges an annual salary of six thousand eight hundred eleven dollars. In addition to the salary paid such judges by the state, they shall be paid an annual salary of twelve thousand dollars payable monthly on their respective warrants by the city of Shreveport, and the governing authority of the city of Shreveport shall pay such additional salary as they deem proper. The judges of the City Court of Shreveport shall not engage in the practice of law.

* * *

(10)(a) In lieu of the salary specified by R.S. 13:1874(E) to be paid by the state of Louisiana to the judges of the City Court of Monroe, the state shall pay to such judges an annual salary of twenty-three thousand seven hundred seventy-seven dollars.

* * *
