ACT No. 286.

AN ACT,

Levying a license tax on certain horse or mule traders in the State.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, That it shall be unlawful for any person as a business to swap, trade or traffic in horses or mules in this State, without first paying an annual license tax of one hundred dollars ($100.00), in each parish in which said person engages in said business, provided, that this Act shall not apply to any horse or mule trader except such as travel through the country carrying their camping outfits and who camp along the roadside or in public places.

Section 2. Be it further enacted, etc., That any person violating Section 1 of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00), nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), or be imprisoned for not less than thirty days (30), nor more than ninety days (90), or both fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the court, and that each day's violation of this Act shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 3. Be it further enacted, etc., That said license, provided herein Act, shall be collected by the tax collectors of the State in the same manner as other license taxes are collected.

Section 4. Be it further enacted, etc., That this Act shall take effect from and after its promulgation.

H. G. DUPRE,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

P. M. LAMBRÉMONTE,
Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

Approved: July 7, 1910.

J. Y. SANDERS,
Governor of the State of Louisiana.

A true copy.

JOHN T. MICHEL,
Secretary of State.

ACT No. 287.

House Bill No. 60.

AN ACT

To prohibit any male person from knowingly accepting or receiving in whole or in part, support or maintenance from the proceeds or earnings of any female person engaged in prostitution or any other immoral pursuit or occupation, or providing penalties for the violation thereof.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, That any male person who shall knowingly accept or receive in whole or in part, support or maintenance from the proceeds or earnings of any female person engaged in prostitution or any other immoral pursuit or occupation shall upon conviction suffer imprisonment with or without hard labor, for a period of not less than six months nor more than two years, and be fined not less than One Hundred nor more than Five Hundred Dollars.

Section 2. Be it further enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, That all laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

H. G. DUPRE,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

P. M. LAMBRÉMONTE,
Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate.

Approved: July 7, 1910.

J. Y. SANDERS,
Governor of the State of Louisiana.

A true copy.

JOHN T. MICHEL,
Secretary of State.

ACT No. 288.

To prohibit the holding, detaining or restraining or attempting to hold, detain or restrain in any house of prostitution or any other place of immoral character any female person, for the purpose of compelling such female person, directly or indirectly, to involuntary service or labor, to pay, liquidate or cancel any debt, or obligation incurred or said to be incurred in such house of prostitution or any other place of immoral character, and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, That whoever shall hold, detain or restrain, or attempt to hold, detain or restrain in any house of prostitution or any place of immoral character, any female person, for the purpose of compelling such female person directly or indirectly, to involuntary service or labor, to pay, liquidate or cancel any debt, or obligation incurred or said to be incurred in such house of prostitution or any other place of immoral character, shall upon conviction suffer imprisonment with or without hard labor, for a period of not less than six months nor more than two years, and be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars, nor more than Five Hundred Dollars.